1. Teachers must understand the subject themselves before teaching it to the students. Giving notes in class without teaching the concept is not effective as we can collect notes from books and internet.
2. Teachers in colleges should focus on practical instead of theory because we can learn theory by watching it ourselves on you tube or other learning platform(Now a days no shortage of teachers).
3. They should teach us digitally as well as teach us in blackboard because some concepts are difficult to learn in 2D so we need to understand it in 3D. In our college no use of projector. To understand the concept of 3d (as we are Chemistry students) we need projector teaching.

1. Teachers' concept should clear before teaching
2. Teachers/Institute should focus more on practical instead of theory
3. Reference books of various writer must available at library...
